CHILD PROTECTION POLICY STATEMENT

Causeway Tennis and Bowls Club is fully committed to safeguarding the well-being of its members. Every individual in the club should always show respect and understanding for their rights, safety and welfare, and conduct themselves in a way that reflects the principles of the club and the guidelines contained in the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport.

Causeway Tennis and Bowls Club supports the view that all children's sport should be conducted in an atmosphere of fair play. In this context the club undertakes to adopt the definition of fair play as set out in the European Sports Charter and Code of Ethics, Council of Europe (1993).

"Fair play is much more than playing within the rules. It incorporates the concepts of friendship, respect for others and always playing within the right spirit. Fair play is defined as a way of thinking, not just a way of behaving. It incorporates issues concerned with the elimination of cheating, gamesmanship, doping, violence (both physical and verbal), exploitation, unequal opportunities, excessive commercialism and corruption."

To promote the best practice in children's sport, the club complies with the guidelines as set out in Section 2.7 of the Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport as follows:

EQUALITY STATEMENT

All children should be valued and treated in an equitable and fair manner regardless of ability, age, sex, religion, social and ethnic background, or political persuasion. Children, irrespective of ability or disability should be involved in sports activities in an integrated and inclusive way, whenever possible, thus allowing them to participate to their full potential alongside other children (Code of Ethics and Good Practice for Children's Sport 2000).

Causeway Tennis and Bowls Club recognises the additional vulnerability of some children and the extra difficulties they may face when seeking help, i.e.

- Dependency due to disability may make some children feel powerless
- On occasions possible limited ability to communicate their feelings
- A negative self-image can make children vulnerable to manipulation by others

To address this vulnerability coaches are encouraged to seek guidance on working with children with a disability from external agencies, parents / guardians, and the children themselves.

CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT

Causeway Tennis and Bowls Club recognises the legal principle that the welfare of the child is paramount, meaning that confidentiality should not be allowed to override the right of children to be protected from harm. Information of a confidential nature will be treated in accordance with Child Protection legislation under the direction of the Designated Officer, Child Protection Officers, and the Executive Committee.
